

School Authority Acceptance Availability of Mid-Year Home Education Students

as of November 15th, 2020

Please note: You do NOT have to sign up with a new school authority to register your child as a home education student. You can simply send in a Home Education Notification Form to your existing school for the remainder of the year. This notifies them that you will be taking on the responsibility of providing your child with an education and it takes them off the “Truancy” list. The school will remain “the supervising school authority” for your home education program. Then you can switch for next Fall. The Home Education Notification form can be found here:

Or, you can switch to a homeschooling friendly and supportive board from the list below: You would send in this form to them:

Or, since you won't get funding anyway, you can Notify directly with the government. You will not require an Education plan, or teacher visits. There will be no support provided. The Notification Only-No Funding form is here and you send it to the government department listed on the form:
